Guide Dogs Victoria

Nestled within the leafy heart of Kew – a mere stone’s throw from the iconic Yarra Trail – our historic site has been the home of Guide Dogs Victoria since 1962. The ideal location for any offsite, team building or development days, events and more; book an exclusive experience while making a difference at one of Victoria’s most-trusted charities.

About our beautiful Kew Campus

- Guide Dogs Victoria has transformed our 60-year-old Campus into a world-class sensory Campus for people with low vision and blindness. We aim to foster community connections and raise awareness, ultimately increasing outcomes and independence for those with vision loss.
- Located within 30 minutes of the Melbourne CBD, the Guide Dogs Victoria Campus is host to residential accommodation, venue meeting spaces, staff offices, a puppy nursery, dog training kennels and expansive open grounds.

The Betty Amsden Education Centre

We warmly invite you to book the Betty Amsden Education Centre for your next event, educational workshop or conference and experience a venue enriched with the spirit of community.

Betty Amsden OAM was a philanthropist and steadfast supporter of Guide Dogs Victoria who made a lasting impact on our organisation. Her unwavering commitment and selfless work towards improving the lives of people with low vision or blindness leaves a notable mark on our community.

In recognition of her remarkable contributions, we are deeply honoured to dedicate this space to Betty Amsden OAM.
