Residential Conference Accommodation and Packages

Guide Dogs Victoria

Nestled within the leafy heart of Kew – a mere stone’s throw from the iconic Yarra Trail – our historic site has been the home of Guide Dogs Victoria since 1962.

The ideal location for any offsite, team building or development days, events and more; book an exclusive experience while making a difference at one of Victoria’s most-trusted charities.

About our beautiful Kew Campus

- Guide Dogs Victoria has transformed our 60-year-old Campus into a world-class sensory Campus for people with low vision and blindness. We aim to foster community connections and raise awareness, ultimately increasing outcomes and independence for those with vision loss.
- Located within 30 minutes of the Melbourne CBD, the Guide Dogs Victoria Campus is host to residential accommodation, venue meeting spaces, staff offices, a puppy nursery, dog training kennels and expansive open grounds.
- When our facilities are not being used by our Clients we are making them available for use to other organisations and the general public.
