Membership Application

Membership Application Instructions

Should you wish to become a member of Guide Dogs NSW/ACT (Guide Dogs), please follow the membership application process below:

1. Review the Constitution and familiarise yourself with the terms of membership (Clause 6).
2. Complete the application form.
3. Attach a brief biography or some information about your association with Guide Dogs and how you can contribute to the organisation's success. Please include the reason you wish to apply for membership. This information will be taken into account when the Board considers your application.
4. Send your application form and information to company.secretary@guidedogs.com.au
5. The Board will consider your individual application on its own merit at the next available Board meeting.
6. You will be advised whether or not your application has been successful in accordance with the constitution.
7. Should your application be successful, your membership payment will be processed and you will be added to the Members Register.

Collection Statement
