Workplace Giving with Guide Dogs

Every year, people like you enable Guide Dogs Queensland to help people living with low vision or blindness navigate their world with confidence and independence.

While we're best known for our iconic Guide Dogs, we also provide training and support to Queenslanders of all ages through orientation and mobility courses, programs for children, counselling, occupational therapy and much more.

You can make a difference

Giving regularly through your pay is an easy way to help people living with low vision or blindness navigate their world with confidence and independence.

Here are some examples of how your generosity could really count over a year:

- $2 a fortnight could buy a long cane for a person living with low vision or blindness
- $5 a fortnight could provide four enrichment packs for growing pups
- $10 a fortnight could buy a harness for a working Guide Dog
- $20 a fortnight could pay for five large beds for Guide Dogs-in-training.

How Workplace Giving works

It's a great feeling knowing you're changing lives, but it feels even better doing so in a super simple way. When you sign up for Workplace Giving, your donations will automatically go directly to Guide Dogs. You can then claim your donation total at the end of the financial year.

An easy yet powerful way to show your support

Simply fill in the form below and give it to our Guide Dogs team member. Any amount you can give will make a real difference and give the gift of freedom and independence.
